WAS THE NEIGHBOR'S CHICKEN

Incident That Was Embarrassing. Although it Also Had an Amusing Side to It.

Some years ago, while living in the suburbs, we kept a few chickens; our neighbors also had chickens. After the garden season was over we let them run, as did our neighbors. In this way I suppose they got more or less mixed.

One day I decided to have a chicken for dinner, and, not liking to kill it myself—my husband being away—I asked our neighbor if he would kill it for me. He kindly consented, so I brought out the particular fowl I had selected. He killed it, and I thanked him and proceeded to prepare it for dinner.

When dinner was over I went out to feed the chickens. What was my surprise to find among them the fowl I thought I had just eaten. It was my neighbor's chicken I had asked him to kill for me.

Of course, I lost no time in making spoilings—and also insisted that they take ours instead, and they had a good laugh at my expense.

NEWS CULLINGS From Kentucky

Campbellsville.—Among the articles placed in the corner of the new Methodist church here was a Bible 200 years old, the property of Mrs. Emma Stearman.

Paris.—Dorsey Watkins, Fred Wilkerson and Frank Wilkerson were tried before County Judge George Bat-terton on a charge of unlawfully seling Stone Creek, and each fined $24.

Maysville.—The Rev. Charles Norman, 28, Baptist minister of Ellsberry, O., five miles from Maysville, shot his wife three times and then attempted to take his own life by turning his revolver upon himself.

Paduah.—Breaking up a bird's nest proved fatal to Ray Sanders, a 11-year-old boy. The boy's skull was crushed when he fell headlong from the top of a thirty-foot telephone pole and struck the concrete pavement.

Frankfort.—State Inspector and Inspector Henry L. James earned into the state treasury $4,647 collected from officials of Cumberland County, and filed a report covering the investigation with Governor Morrow.

Cynthiana.—A south-bound L. & N. freight train struck a truck containing a white man and three negroes, who were on their way to Knoxville.
The truck was damaged and Wilbur Jones, colored, bruised about the hips.

Ryan.—Blackberries, which he ate caused the death of Captain Sanford E. Fuller, recent member of the Cincinnati fire department, at his summer home in Rylan. The blackberries set up a condition which developed uraemic poisoning, physicians said.

Louisville.—Six persons were injured, but not seriously, and about 100 passengers on an interurban car were shaken when Monon Train No. 3, from Chicago, ran into a trailer attached to a Louisville-bound car from New Albany, Ind., on the Kentucky and Indiana bridge here.

Stanford.—Steele Shelby and Preston Troutman, of Danville, while returning from Crab Orchard Springs in an automobile, ran into a bunch of hogs which were being driven at night to market. Eleven hogs were killed.
Wilson Alexander, owner, was paid $230, their value, on the spot.

Harrodsburg.—Gilbert Britton, 8-year-old son of Finley Britton, Salva-stumbled against shrubbery while playing in the yard, and the sharp end of a broken branch penetrated his face just below the right eye. Physicians and it to remove flesh to clear the wood. The eye may be saved.

Vanceburg.—Joseph Jones, 35, an employee of the Vanceburg Bunion Company, was drowned in the Ohio River here. Jones, after swimming the width of the river two successive times, had started on his third trip across when he was suddenly overcome and went down to his death. His body has not been recovered.

Owensboro.—Because Altha Henning, for whom she was keeping house, did not return home from a visit to a neighbor at a certain time, Carrie Jane Smith is accused of setting fire to a large barn which, with a lot of farming implements, corn and hay, was destroyed by fire. Loss is estimated at about $1,100, with no insurance.

Frankfort.—Indictments of conditions in the Central State Hospital, Lakeland, by Mrs. L. V. Winchester, discussing the hospital, were investigated by the State Board of Charities and Corrections and the findings of the board, which in substance are that the charges are unfounded, were filed with Governor Morrow.

Hopkinsville.—John Brandon, 48, farmer, of the Roaring Spring vicinity in Trigg county, was instantly killed by lightning. He was returning from his watermelon patch carrying a hoe on his shoulder, and was within thirty feet of his house when the bolt fell.

The only mark on his body was a black spot on one temple, but a considerable hole was torn through his hat. He is survived by his wife and two children.

Sadleville.—The Farmers' Union Supply Company of Sadleville, Inc., has opened. This company is organized for and by the farmers and is incorporated for $20,000, with 50 famers of Scott, Owen and Harrison counties interest. T. F. Sherrett is manager. The Farmers' Union Supply Company of Georgetown will open at Georgetown. J. W. Hamilton, present county clerk of Scott County, has been elected manager.

Owensboro.—Robert E. Wedding, 52, was shot and killed by his son, Edward Wedding, 25, at young Wed-ding's home on West Eighth street. Mr.
Wedding, who is a farmer, made his home with his son when in Owensboro.

Vanceburg.—F. E. Neal is reported to have the prize crop of tobacco in this section. It contains an acre, is a full stand, very even. Mr. Neal, who never raises over an acre of tobacco, used 1,000 pounds of fertilizer on this year.

Lexington.—An ordinance submitted to the Board of City Commissioners by local business men, designed to restrict further the activities of thierant dealers and agents in Lexington, was declared to be non-enforceable and in conflict with the interstate commerce act in an opinion by James A. Wil-more, assistant corporation counsel.
Action was referred to Finance Commissioner J. J. O'Brien and notice was sent to the Board of Commerce, which favored the move for more protection for local merchants.

Angling Made Easy.
A Californian keeps a lake property stocked with fish where anglers may throw their line and fish to their heart's content by paying a fee for each fish caught. It is much cheaper and just as much fun as taking a long trip into the country.

What Lies at Hand.

larceny by a grand jury at Hazard loving stock sales there.

Frankfort.—While 200 prison-were attending Bible class in the Sta-Reformatory chapel three convicts, J. P. Murray, of Campbell County; Frank McFarland, of Fayette County; and Monty Guess, of Jefferson County, all white men, attempted to escape from the cell house by going through the ventilator pipe which they found closed with iron bars. They admitted at a court of inquiry that they were making a dash for liberty.

Paduah.—Somebody who writes sweet-scented missives on pink stationery, addressed to a young woman, dropped a letter into her alarm box, making it of the mail box, a created quite an excitement at the department headquarters. It hap-ed that the fire box was located in the heart of the millling district of the city, and a strong wind was blowing. Firemen rushed for the engine, but found all quiet. Then they discovered the box open, and a smile went around when the pink letter was removed. They "forwarded" it to its destination via the mail route.

Frankfort.—State Auditor J. J. Craig reported the amounts on hand in the different funds of the state government, as of August 1, as follows: Stok-ing fund, $6,209.11; State University fund, $1,771.53; school fund, $810,375.
75; Eastern State Normal, $322.69; Western State Normal, $822.09; state fund, $422,563.63; general expense fund, $546,032.23; balance in treasury, $1,709,810.05. The outstanding interest-bearing warrants amount to $3,492,352.82, of which $344,786.37 are in school warrants. The interest-bearing warrants are an increase of $179,854.03 over last month.

Louisville.—Francis I. Jones, director general of free employment of the United States Department of Labor, discussing the hospital, were investigated by the State Board of Charities and Corrections and the find-
are that the charges are unfounded,
were filed with Governor Morrow.

Louisville.—W. W. Mau, of Xenia, O., proprietor of the Mau Carnival Company, was arrested by John Malley, of the United States secret service, after it was charged that he had passed several raised bills on the Roth Meyer Company, 693 South Third Third street. The charges grew out of a deal when Mau traded his old car to the Roth company for a new one, paying the firm $200 additional.
In the money paid the automobile company, it is charged, were three raised bills of $10 denomination that had been cleverly raised from $1 notes, and a $2 bill that had been raised to $5.

Jackson.—Fred Fletcher, 25, a school teacher, shot and killed instantly Sam Mann, 30, at Frozen Creek, six miles from here. Fletcher came to Jackson and surrendered. He was given an examining trial before County Judge J. Wise Hagin and released on $5,000 bail. Mann, a tenant on a farm owned by Fletcher's father, Lynch Fletcher, is alleged to have had trouble with the latter. He is said to have threatened the elder man, who was unarmed.
Young Fletcher approached at this time, and it is said, fired as Mann was about to shoot his father.

Louisville.—Oscar King, 54, Wath-on's Lane and Seventh street road, while riding his bicycle on Third street near St. Catherine, was struck by a machine driven by Ernest Vogt, 1382 South Third street, knocked down and dragged fifteen feet. King was taken in an unconscious condition by the Sixth District police to the City Hospital, where it was found that he had suffered a double fracture of the left leg and injuries of the head and body.
Vogt was arrested by Sergeant Moore and charged with malicious assault.

PROHIBITION EN- FORCEMENT ACUTE

ROBLEMS OF DRY STATUTE ENFORCEMENT DEBATED.

Age and Shipment Causes of Tans Which Reach President and in Newspaper Union News Service.

Washington.—Problems of prohibition enforcement in the United States growing so acute that they are g themselves into the semi-conferences of President Har-dis cabinet. Two questions to enforcement of the probiwere called up during the conference, it was learned. to the storage and disposition of liquor, the other the transportation of liquor in bond to a country.

Official is said to have to the attention of the Pres-the other members the dif-Government officials are ing in obtaining storage confiscated liquor, especially near cities, notably New York, use attached to leasing storage and paying salaries of officers to prevent it being stolen. uly, it was indicated, it would necessary for the government to be means of disposing of of straband liquor instead of per-it to accumulate in large quana large cities. Not all members cabinet, it is said, subscribe to theory that confiscated liquor be poured into esters and sew-or otherwise destroyed. They conthat this liquor has an economic as aside from its value as a beverage, and that it is a ruthless waste destroy any product for which lawful uses can be found.

Government officials already are addressing themselves to the solution of this problem. Two methods of disposition have been suggested. One is to extract the alcohol from the liquor and to make it available for industrial uses, the other to market it for purposes which are legal under the prohibition laws. The attention of the President and cabinet members was directed, it was learned, to a section of the Volstead law that prohibits transportation across in country of liquor in bond, no matter for what purpose. Under a strict interpretation of this section, it is said, the government would not be able to ship liquor for legal uses.

It was indicated that legislation would be sought to remove these restrictions. It was learned that the Administration would not countenance sheer laws dealing with enforcement, notwithstanding the fact that there would be no relaxation of promise said.
This question of legitimate use is being tried in various courts, and the Administration will await the decisions before taking action. In case the Courts hold goods of this character to be subject to seizure, recommendations for changes in the enforcement law may be made by the Administration.

Murder Suspects Held.
Memphis, Tenn.—Three of the four bandits who, it is alleged, shot and killed two officers before a motor car company's plant recently, are now under arrest. Police express the belief that the fourth man, they hold to be the last member of the "death quartet." The three under arrest are from Memphis.
They are T. T. Red Harris, 29 years old, said to have been the driver of the stolen car; Jesse C. Jones, 26, and his brother, Orville Jones, 21.

Taft Purchases Home.
Washington.—Chief Justice William Howard Taft has purchased the home of former Congressman Al T. Fuller, of Massachusetts, at 2241 Wyoming avenue, Northwest, it was learned from reliable sources. The property, which is considered to be one of the finest residences in the city, has been held for $100,000, it is understood. The actual consideration was not learned.

Liner Hits Iceberg.
Christiania.—The Norwegian steamship Bergensford limped into port here from New York, having been damaged by hitting an iceberg while off Cape Race during a dense fog. The iceberg bumped the steamer below the water line and one wing of the propeller was bent so that the liner was forced to reduce its speed.

Holy War Proclaimed.
Angora, Anatolia.—A holy war has been proclaimed by the King of the Turkish Nationalists in their fight against the Greeks in Asia Minor, it was announced here.

Life Was Threatened.
Canton, O.—That Paul E. Kitzig, 29 years old, state witness for Government in the prosecution of Canton and Cleveland men several months ago on dry-law violation charges, who was murdered here, had received numerous threats against his life, it became known. Mrs. Augusta Kitzig, mother of the murdered man, told authorities that her son had informed her that his life had been threatened by a former associate. "Paul came home on a number of occasions and told me of these threats," Mrs. Kitzig said.

President's Father Married.
Marion, O.—"Good-night, Alice: I guess I'll see you again." With these words Dr. George Tyrone Harding, 70 years old, father of President Harding, left his bride, Miss Alice Sevens, 32 years old, at the door of her home. Mr. Harding returned to his home. It was the climax to his elopement earlier in the day to Monroe, Mich. Dr. Harding and Miss Sevrens, who had been his stenographer and office attendant for years, left Marion, ostensibly to attend a medical meeting in Detroit.

Not Real Sympathy.
"I'm not sure my friend really sym-pathized when I told him my troubles."
"He seemed interested."
"Yes, But I think he was comparing notes and congratulating himself on managing his affairs better than I did mine."—Stray Stories.

POSSIBLY HER LAST CHANCE

At All Events, the Object of His Affec-

Her Fiance.

For several minutes the young man did not speak. His heart was too full. It was enough for him to know that this glorious creature loved him; that she had promised to share his fate.

With a new and delightful sense of ownership he feasted his eyes once more upon her beauty, and as he realized that henceforth it would be his privilege to provide for her welfare and happiness he could have almost wept with joy.

His good fortune seemed incredible.
Finally he whispered tenderly:
"How did it ever happen, darling, that such a bright, shining angel as yourself fell in love with a dull, stupid fellow like me?"

"Goodness knows," she murmured absently; "I must have a screw loose somewhere."

"Diplomacy, my boy," said dad, with a patronizing smile, "means doing or

"Ah! Then I was a diplomatist last night, dad?"
"Really, my boy. How do you make

WOMEN OF MIDDLE LIFE

A Dangerous Period Through Which Every Woman Must Pass

Practical Suggestions Given by the Women Whose to carry women safely through the Change of Life. She says:

"It is with pleasure that I write to you thanking you for what your wonderful medicine has done for me. I was passing through the Change of Life and had a displacement and weakness so that I could not stand on my feet and other annoying symptoms. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the first bottle helped me, so I got more.
It cured me and I am now doing my housework. Your medicine is certainly woman's friend and you may use this testimonial as you choose."—Mrs. MART LISTER, 608 Frank Street, Adrian, Mich.

It is said that middle age is the most trying period in a woman's life, and owing to modern methods of living not one woman in a thousand passes through this perfectly natural change without experiencing very annoying symptoms.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a natural and safe medicine especially adapted to act upon the feminine system. It acts in such a manner as to build up the weakened nervous system and enables a woman to pass this trying period with the least possible annoying symptoms.

Women everywhere should remember that most of the commoner ailments of women are not the surgical ones—they are not caused by serious displacements or growths, although the symptoms may be the same, and that is why so many apparently serious ailments readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it acts as a natural restorative and often prevents serious troubles.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write
